Claims Rich Men Have Concocted a Scheme to Overthrow the Republic.

He Thinks That an Empire Will Be a Fact if William J. Bryan Should Not Win.

NEW YORK, October 31.—E. L. Godkin, in a communication printed in the Evening Post to-day, refers to a pamphlet by Goldwin Smith, entitled "Commonwealth or Empire." Then he says:

"I was particularly struck by what he says of the growing alliance between the English Tories and the American multimillionaires, and the resulting attempt to give a popular indorsement to the policy of a 'chocolate eclaire' like McKinley, to use Roosevelt's phrase. But I must remind Prof. Smith that the growth of the multi-millionaire class in America and its effect on society and politics were foreshadowed more than sixty years ago by De Tocqueville in his 'Democratic America.'"

"This tendency began to show itself at the end of the Civil war, in 1865, by the formation of such organizations as 'The Sons of the Revolution,' 'The Society of Colonial War,' 'The Colonial Dames,' 'The Daughters of the Revolution,' 'The Society of Mayflower Descendants,' 'The United Order of Pilgrim Fathers,' 'The St. Nicholas Society of New York,' 'The Holland Society of New York,' 'The Huguenot Society of America.'"

"The Northern people, owing to the immense natural resources of the country and the tremendous and inexpensive additions made to the population by immigration from Europe, began to grow rich hand over hand."

"The result of this was a great increase of social intercourse between the wealthy classes of both countries, and a complete change in English feeling toward America. There was one bitter drop in the American cup, however, and that was we had no coal stations, no colonies, no subject races; in short, that we were not a world power."

"In order to inaugurate the new republic a syndicate of rich men selected a candidate for President that would suit them, who had no convictions of his own, paid his debts and got him ready for his office, and were successful under the pretense of danger to the finances. He answered the purpose admirably."

"He put his ear to the ground, treated the Constitution as a dead letter, annexed large provinces on the other side of the globe, appointed a full line of viceroys and warriors of his own choosing, doctored their communications, treated subject races as vermin, and very soon enabled our wealthy men to hold up their heads as 'a world power' in England, and put an end to all nonsense about freedom and equal rights. If their movement should succeed in getting endorsement at the next election, I believe it will be the most skillful conversion of a republic into an empire of the many that have taken place."

"Every republic runs its greatest risk not so much from discontented soldiers as from discontented multi-millionaires. That is exactly our present position. All past republics have been overthrown by rich men or nobles, and we have plenty of Sons of the Revolution ready for the job, and plenty of successful soldiers deciding the Constitution unrebuked by the Executive or by public opinion. To make matters worse the universities have largely followed the multi-millionaires."

The Trust Monster.

[Extract from speech by Chas. J. Bronston.]

This monster of greed has, by the aid of Republican statutory assistance, grown so large that less than 500 persons, personal and artificial, own more than two-thirds of the wealth of the nation. Trusts fix the price of almost everything you use, from a steel rail to a peanut, from the velvet cloak which you have bought for your wife to your baby's cradle. They fix the price of labor with which you must earn the means for buying their products.

"If you want harmony, quiet and peace at home, confidence in the business world, do not indorse by your vote the most damnable assassination in our history. I never indorsed the Goebel law. If it were on the statute books to-day, I would fight it, but if I had the choice of indorsing Goebelism by voting for Beckham or approving Taylorism by voting for Yerkes, I would cast my vote for Beckham. You can correct Goebelism, but you can not correct Taylorism, which is synonymous with assassination committed in the supposed performance of patriotic duty."—Chas. J. Bronston.

ROOSEVELT IS RUGGED.

Changes His Campaign Plans to Close At Oyster Bay.

Jamestown, N. Y., Nov. 2.—Governor Roosevelt was shown a newspaper in which was published a rumor to the effect that he was on the verge of collapse from excessive work in the political campaign. The governor said his weight and general appearance were sufficient denial of the report, adding that he was actually in the best of health. The governor wrote to New York city asking that he be excused from speaking Saturday and that the scheduled trip through Long Island for Monday be cancelled as he wished to finish his speech making in his home village of Oyster Bay, Monday night. The governor and party left here at 9 o'clock bound for Oswego, with many stops scheduled on the way.

The first stop was made at Randolph, where the governor spoke briefly. At Olean the governor said in part: "I am passing through a part of the state which can always be depended on to roll in great majorities for the cause of decent citizenship. In this campaign it's the fundamental issue. We have a right to appeal to all men without regard to party affiliations in the past, to stand with us now because this is no mere party contest. This is a contest for the fundamental principles of American life, for orderly liberty, for decency, honor and that virile patriotism which sees in the flag a symbol of national greatness and wishes to uphold it in the face of the nations of mankind." He also said: "The Kansas City platform and those who uphold it stand for the forces of disorder and of national dishonesty and here in this state for the forces of civil dishonesty as well, and when such is the case we have the right to appeal for the support of every true American." The governor also said: "It is perfectly true that no legislation, no administration can by itself bring prosperity. The wisest laws bring prosperity if the hand of the Lord is laid upon us. If there comes drought or flood or fire or pestilence, no law will save us from disaster and there are some people whom nothing can make prosperous. All that laws can do is this: They can be so shaped, framed and administered as to give the average man that has a chance to use right his own skill, thrift, courage. That is all, and that has been done."

The governor addressed a large audience from a stand in the principal square of Olean. A number of small boys tooted tin horns so noisily that the governor was compelled once or twice to ask them to desist. The next stop was at Cuba, and the fourth at Friendship, the governor speaking briefly at both places.

Republican Warning.

New York, Nov. 2.—The Republican statement to voters in reply to Richard Croker's warning against election frauds. It is as follows: "Notwithstanding the announcement of this Democratic policy of terrorizing voters and burglarizing ballot boxes, the Republican national committee desires to state to the public that the Republican managers, national, state and local, have taken measures to insure the protection of the rights of every voter in the pending election, and that the votes shall be properly counted and recorded as cast. The committee therefore admonishes all voters that they must not be deterred by threats of the Democratic leaders from exercising the rights of suffrage on Tuesday next; for every citizen is entitled by law to protection in this, his highest privilege, and we shall see to it that his vote shall also be protected at all hazards."

Hearst Offers Reward.

New York, Nov. 2.—W. R. Hearst, president of the National Association of Democratic clubs has issued a statement to the 2,500,000 members of those organizations in which he offers $1,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of persons guilty of altering election returns and $5,000 reward for the first person telegraphing him information of this character which may lead to such a conviction. In part the statement says: "Every organization in sympathy with the Democratic cause must at once pick reliable volunteers to fight fraud and intimidation at the polls. No polling place in the country should be left without intelligent and courageous citizens prepared to resist every form of political cheating, overt or covert. In every precinct the volunteers should see to it that no unqualified voter is allowed to cast a vote and that the returns tally exactly with the whole number of votes cast."

New York, Nov. 2.—The grand jury of Passaic county, N. J., reported indictments for murder and rape against McAllister, Kerr, Campbell and Dea, the men accused of having caused the death of Jennie Bosscher of Paterson, 10 days ago.

COST OF MAIL SERVICE

Immense Sum Required to Operate Our Postal System.

TRAVELS OVER MILLIONS OF MILES

Estimate For Ensuing Year Shows Need of a Big Increase of Expenses. Rural Delivery to Be Extended Along All Star Routes.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The annual report of W. S. Shallenbarger, second assistant postmaster general, shows that, June 30, the annual rate of expenditure for inland mail service was $55,146,000, for foreign service $2,014,538, total expenditures $57,160,538. There were 22,834 star routes, with a total mileage of 269,858, involving an annual rate of expenditure of $5,123,378; 1,843 special office routes, 182 steamboat routes, 2,668 railroad routes (annual expense $33,424,782); 228 railway postoffice car routes (annual expense $1,369,000); 8,695 railway postoffice clerks (annual expenditure $8,946,424); 7,190 mail messengers routes, 220 wagon routes (in cities); 257 electric and cable car routes; five pneumatic tube routes (annual expenditure $222,266); necessary and special facilities by trunk lines of railroads involved an annual rate of expenditure of $195,723 and mail equipments cost $325,744. The routes of all kinds in the domestic mail service cover over 500,000 miles in length and the miles traveled over them per annum was 459,207,753. An average of almost nine trips a week on each route was maintained throughout the country. The experiment of box delivery on star routes whereby persons all along the line could have the mail brought from the next office by the star route carrier and left in a box erected by such persons has worked satisfactorily in South Carolina and the next star route contracts will provide for such service, increasing the mail facilities in the rural districts at small cost.

In the railway mail service matter too illegally or improperly addressed to permit delivery amounted to 24,167,284 pieces, an increase of over 11,000. Relief legislation for families of those killed in the service is asked and the creation of a fund to retire on pay a clerk whose usefulness is cut short by permanent disability incurred in the line of duty. Reorganization and reclassification of the railway mail service legislation requiring separation of second class mail matter by publishers and legislation for punishment of persons who by force attempt to enter a postal car or assault a postal clerk on duty are recommended.

The total estimate for all mail transportation for the fiscal year ending June, 1902 is $61,430,249, being $2,158,610 more than the current appropriation. The estimates submitted in detail are as follows: Star service, including special offices $3,580,000; steamboat service, $586,000; railroad transportation, $34,700,000; railway postoffice cars, $4,861,000; railway postoffice clerks, $10,378,749; mail messenger service, $1,038,000; electric and cable car service, $500,000; wagon service in cities, $830,000; mail equipments, 326,500; miscellaneous items, $1,000; total inland service, $52,726,249; foreign mail transportation, $2,549,000; balances due foreign countries, $155,000.

Statement by Stone.

New York, Nov. 2.—Ex-Governor Stone of Missouri, who is in charge of the New York branch of the Democratic national headquarters, gave out the following: "Governor Roosevelt and other Republican leaders and Republican newspapers are criticizing Mr. Bryan for saying that it was intended to quarter the army near large cities and to use it to overawe workmen. Senator Hawley of Connecticut is a Republican, and chairman of the senate committee on military affairs. On March 8, 1899, Senator Hawley made a speech before the Connecticut legislature and said: 'It was a wise thing for the merchants of Chicago to give a tract of land to the national government, who fortified it, and it is now called Fort Sheridan. We have heard of disturbances in Chicago. We hope, however, that we shall never have any again, but we know the best way not to have them is to be prepared for them. So I say we shall need a large army to stand back of municipal authority.'"

Address of Chairman Jones.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Chairman Jones of the national Democratic committee, issued the following address to all "who favor the republic and oppose the empire": "The election is already won. We now have only to maintain our present position. I urge that every man interested in preserving the principles of government which have come down to us from the fathers shall consecrate the entire day on Tuesday next to the great cause. Let those whose duty it is to watch the polling and counting do so for every instant of time from the beginning to the end—from the opening of the ballot box in the morning until the returns are signed and sealed at night."

YARN FIEM FAILS.

Depression in Business and Crimp in Wool Market the Cause.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—Judge McPherson in the United States district court, upon the request of creditors of William Browne and Sons and the Phoenix Mills company, has appointed as receivers for the firms Thomas Walstenholme and Frank H. Keene. Further argument will be heard as to the appointment of a third receiver. The two concerns, which are officially the same, are manufacturers of worsted yarns and their combined liabilities are placed at $2,140,000. Depression in business and the borrowing of $1,000,000 on wool pledged with them is said to have caused their failure.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—Caldwell Independent Telephone company, Caldwell, $5,000; Home Seekers' Co-operative company, Akron, $2,000; Bradner Savings Bank company, Bradner, $25,000; Rassford Savings Bank company, Rassford, $25,000; Conneaut Telephone company, Conneaut, increased from $30,000 to $50,000; Dr. Harter Medicine company, Dayton, $100,000; Eureka Soap company, Cincinnati, $200,000; The Wine and Spirit News, Columbus, increased from $5,000 to $10,000; Star Aluminum company, Doylestown, $1,000.

Change of Courts.

New York, Nov. 2.—City Magistrate Glammer discharged from custody Cornelius L. Alvord, the defaulting note taker of the First national bank. The magistrate said he was satisfied he had no jurisdiction in the case. Alvord was allowed to leave the court room, but as soon as he reached the corridor, he was rearrested by a United States marshal and taken before United States commissioner Shields, who held Alvord in $150,000 bail for examination next Wednesday. In default of bail Alvord was remanded to jail.

To Contest Keating's Will.

San Francisco, Nov. 2.—The will of Thomas Keating, the well known horseman of Pleasanton, Cal., who died recently at Lexington, Ky., will be contested by his two brothers. The bulk of the estate was left to Frank M. Lee of Reno, Nev., part of it to be disposed of according to directions contained in a private letter. It is hinted that the contest will bring to light a romance in the life of the noted horseman.

Oleomargarine Trust.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Eight defendants who under the corporate name of 'The Fertile Valley Creamery company' are said to have defrauded the government out of thousands of dollars by the illicit manufacture of oleomargarine, were held to the federal court by the grand jury. Government agents have taken possession of the material to the value of $25,000.

Return at Reduced Wages.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—The strike in the rolling mill of the New Haven Iron and Steel company will practically end Monday, when all the men except 24 puddlers will return to work, having been unable to force the management to yield to their protest against a 10 per cent reduction in wages. About 350 hands are employed in the works.

Because He Lost His Job.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—With two large revolvers in his hands Samuel Simpson, colored, created a panic in State street. He emptied both weapons into a crowd, shooting from a window. Two men were seriously injured and a third received three severe scalp wounds. Ill feeling over the loss of a job caused the shooting. Simpson was arrested.

Pitched Battle.

Wheeling, Nov. 2.—In a pitched battle between strikers at Riverside works of the National Tube company and men who have taken their places, Walter Davis was fatally injured. Shots were exchanged and missiles of every description were thrown. More trouble is expected.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Official announcement is made of a deal by which the Rapid Transit company of this city, backed by Philadelphia capital, has secured possession of the well known Cass properties on Lookout Mountain, including the incline railroad from St. Elmo to the top of the mountain and the electric lines on the mountain.

WAS A BUCKEYE BOY.

Went From Mansfield to New York And Became Mayor.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DIED SUDDENLY.

Drygoods Merchant And Banker And Took an Active Part in Politics as a Reformer—Last Mayor of Old New York.

New York, Nov. 2.—William L. Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York died suddenly at 3 a. m. at his residence in this city. The illness of Mr. Strong had been kept from his political friends. It was known among his business associates in the wholesale dry goods district, but no one suspected that his condition was alarming. Mr. Strong had not been at his place of business for several days. Mr. Strong took an active part in politics and it is said his political labors combined with his attempts to retain supervision over his business affairs in the face of impaired health brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1827, and came to New York from Mansfield, O., when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters and was president of the Central national bank.

Mr. Strong was one of the leaders of the reform movement in this city and was elected mayor on the Republican-Citizens' union ticket in 1894. He was the last mayor of the old city of New York before consolidation with Brooklyn and the other boroughs composing the present city of New York.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Receives Express.

Albany, Nov. 2.—Governor Roosevelt has received many letters from members of the Society of Friends relative to a circular issued some weeks ago under date of Philadelphia, quoting the governor's opinion regarding Friends and non-resistance people, in his "Life of Thomas H. Benton." The governor has made public his answer in which he says: "The sentence of mine which is complained of and which was written 15 years ago was intended to express my disagreement both with the man who acts on inadequate provocation and of the man who on adequate provocation fails to act. It would be untrue to say that I have altered my convictions in the matter, but were I now to rewrite the sentence, I should certainly so phrase it that it could not be construed as offensive to the Society of Friends, a body whose social virtues and civic righteousness justly command universal respect."

Three Things to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 2.—It is stated that outside of the questions of indemnity, punishments, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined: First, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisers from all participation of the Chinese government; second, creating an indemnity fund by the increase of Chinese customs revenue either by the payment of duties in gold instead of depreciated silver as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from five per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem; and third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung-Li-Yamen.

Sentenced to Death.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 2.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien-Yang, the provincial judge, Wang Shungon, the military commandant; General Kiau and two other officials. German and French troops will guard garrison at Pao Ting Fu for the winter. The preparations were complete for destroying, Oct. 27, the most venerated temple in the city.

Long at Cripple Creek.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 2.—Secretary of the Navy John B. Long, who is here on a week's visit to his daughters, Misses Helen and Margaret, Friday night addressed a large audience of miners at Cripple Creek. A snow storm interfered with the parade planned for the occasion. Secretary Long spoke on national issues.

If you are opposed to trusts vote for Bryan and Kehoe next Tuesday.

Mason County Democrats should poll their full vote next Tuesday. Let there be no stay-at-home this time.

To vote for Bryan, Stevenson, Beckham and Kehoe just stamp a X in the circle under the rooster. That does the work.

The important thing next Tuesday is to poll the full Democratic vote for Bryan, Stevenson, Beckham and Kehoe. That done, nothing remains but the shouting.

A Democratic voter who doesn't vote counts for nothing. He might as well not exist as far as his party is concerned. Go to the polls next Tuesday and stamp in the circle under the rooster.

As the Georgetown News-Democrat remarks, "the Democrat who knows and feels the importance of this election will not be absent from the polls next Tuesday—not if he has to crawl there."

The parties offering $8 and expenses to certain voters of this city to go to Cincinnati on election day had better go slow or they may have to answer for same, and it will not be before the United States courts either.

Do not wait to be asked to help get the vote out next Tuesday. On that day every man who is a Democrat should turn himself into a committee of one—that the whole party become a committee. Do not expect three or four men to do everything. Let all lend a helping hand. Get out the vote.

The county health authorities should take prompt steps to prevent a spread of diphtheria from the cases reported at Murphysville. No disease is more contagious, and few diseases are more fatal. It carries off more people than smallpox, and its spread should be guarded just as closely and just as promptly.

Who votes for Bryan next Tuesday votes for "A government of the people, by the people and for the people." Who votes for McKinley votes for a government of the trusts, by the trusts and for the trusts! That is the situation divested of verbiage, declares the Georgetown News-Democrat, and the Democrat is right.

THE COAL TRUSTS' EXTORTION.

The BULLETIN's article this week exposing the operations of the coal trusts has excited widespread comment. While there has been a vigorous "kick" made against the marked advance in the price of fuel, yet few had taken the time to figure out the enormous tribute the coal combines were levying on the people of the county. The statement that the trusts are now exacting from $75,000 to $80,000 a year from this city and county, and that this tribute would amount to nearly a million dollars in the next ten years astounded many.

Now, how much of this tribute are you paying? It falls alike upon rich and poor; every consumer has to "stand and deliver." A farmer who was in town Thursday stated that in purchasing a certain quantity of coal this fall he had to pay just $9 more for it than he paid for the same number of bushels before the trusts advanced the price.

There's hardly a family in the city or county that can get along with less than 300 bushels of coal a year. Before the trusts were organized this cost the family $21 to $24; now the same quantity costs from $33 to $36, according to grade—an increase of $12 that goes to add to the wealth of Mark Hanna and his gang of coal barons. It's an easy matter for every family to figure out just how much tribute they are paying the trusts.

Take your pencil and figure out what Hanna and his gang are forcing you to pay them, and then vote for a change next Tuesday. Smash the trusts.

Dun's Commercial Agency Furnishes Voters a Few Pointers.

Figures Showing How the Combines Are Fattening Off of the People.

[Georgetown, O., News-Democrat]

There is not a Republican in this country who does not know of Dun's Commercial Agency. They quote it on every favorable opportunity and take especial pains to assert its reliability. On the 13th of January, this year, it gave a list of advance in prices in certain lines of goods controlled by industrial combinations, commonly called trusts.

If you are a farmer read it.

If you are a laboring man read it.

It may enable you to understand why your income does not go as far as it did before combinations were effected and prices increased.

The following is taken from Dun's Review January 13th, 1900:

"The nail trust increased the price of nails from $1.10 on January 4, 1889, to $2.50 on January 3, 1900. The same trust increased the price of wire nails from $1.35 to $3.20 during the same period.

"The coal trust increased the price of anthracite coal from $3.75 on January 4, 1899, to $4.20 on January 3, 1900.

"The glass trust increased the price of glass from $2.57 on January 4, 1899, to $2.80 on January 3, 1900.

"The rubber trust increased the price of rubber from 94 cents on January 4, 1899, to $1.45 on January 3, 1900.

"The prices of boots and shoes, controlled by the leather trust, show an increase during the year 1899 on men's grain shoes from 97 cents to $1.12, on Creedmore splits from 95 cents to $1.10 and a like increase on all grades of boots and shoes.

"The prices of cotton goods increased 50 per cent. White sheetings on January 11th sold at $15.90 and on December 20th at $23."

This is all that any intelligent man wants to convince him that his duty lies in casting a vote against Wm. McKinley next Tuesday.

THINK IT OVER.

No Man in Maysville Can Make a Mistake By Voting For Our Home Candidate For Congress.

Greeted Everywhere By the Greatest Enthusiasm and Promises of a Big Majority.

LET US ALL HELP TO MAKE THE VICTORY SURE.

The campaign is practically closed and the BULLETIN congratulates all hands that it has been conducted in a fair and decent manner. The Congressional race has been singularly free from malice, meanness and misrepresentation. Our gallant young representative of the people not only seeks a fair election, but has no hope under any other kind of an election. He does not want to win except by an honest vote and a fair count. He has worked hard that Maysville might secure this honor, going personally among the people of 185 precincts in the district and presenting his cause with clearness and conceded ability. We are proud of him as a citizen of Maysville and congratulate him upon the splendid enthusiasm which has everywhere greeted his appearance.

We invite his home people to join in helping to make his victory doubly sure, and call their attention to the fact that a public building might come from his success, to add beauty and substantiality to our city.

There are many reasons which should lead our citizens to give him their warm and cordial support. They know he can and will represent their best interests. Collectively and individually we are interested in his success and believe our citizens will rally to his support.

Sober, honest and industrious, a good lawyer and a worthy citizen, he holds and deserves the confidence of our people. No citizen will make a mistake who votes for James N. Kehoe for Congress. Let us give him a rousing majority.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Bulletins Will Be Received and Announced at Opera House.

Returns from Tuesday's election will be announced from the stage of the opera house on Tuesday night.

An instrument and two operators will be in the building, and the news will come thick and fast from all parts of the country.

An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged. Doors open at 6:30 p. m.

All Indications Point to Kehoe's Election.

[Winchester Democrat]

There is every indication that the Democrats will win out in the Ninth district and elect Hon. J. N. Kehoe to Congress by a triumphant majority. Pugh is kept busy explaining why he voted on every occasion, fifteen times in all, to unseat Democrats and give their seats to Republicans, one of them a negro, and the more he explains the worse he makes matters.

PUGH'S LAST PRAYER.

My father, who art in Lewis,
How full might be thy purse,
Shall out for me on election day
Or I will need a nurse.

Give me that day the floating vote,
Which is no doubt for sale.
And let me state, right here, and now,
I fear this awful gale.

The most of them are on our side,
But still it takes the cash
To bring them into line each time,
For a dinner pail of hash.

Lead me not up against the foe,
While in this district still
Remains a very uncertain vote
Because of promises I didn't fill.

Thy power, O father, in the past
They all know well galore,
But this time true they know well too
I'm struggling for the shore.

Give me a straw, a stick, a hair,
To save me one more time;
McKinley then will put me where
My light will always shine.

THE "ULTRA" SHOE

Is the No Plus Ultra of Shoe building. It is the result of the combination of the highest skill and the finest materials. It is made perfect to the finish. Some Shoes start fairly well, like a speech, and end indifferently, like some speeches. But the "ULTRA" Shoe is watched in every process of its building by experts who act under the strictest orders to secure perfection to the finish. Not a few of the lasts and materials of the "ULTRA":

Royal Opera last, Heyl's Patent Calf.
Fifth Avenue last, military heel of chrome kid.
French Model last, Paris shape, of glazed kid.
Model last, military heel, of chrome kid.
Derby last, of mat kid and ultra calf.

There are many others. These will serve to show some of the right styles and leathers. We are exhibiting the finest lines of LADIES' CORRECT DRESS FOOTWEAR ever seen in Maysville. Then why go to foreign markets for your Shoes, pay more for them and not get as good as we offer you AT HOME?

"CIVIL LIBERTY."

A Sample of It Right Here in Maysville.
Dastardly Outrage Committed
Last Night.

Thursday afternoon a Democratic pole was raised in front of Mr. Martin Spencer's grocery on Forest avenue.

This was evidently too much for the so-called "Civil Libertyites" in that part of the city, and last night about 9 o'clock while Mr. Spencer and some friends were still at his place of business some parties sneaked up to his residence and smashed in the front door.

Mr. Spencer is a one-legged veteran of the Civil war and the outrage is calculated to lose the "Civil Libertyites" many a vote.

"We want no perfunctory condemnation from the mouth. We want work from the heart to catch the murderers. I do not say the Republican party is responsible for the assassination (of Goebel), but I do say that if they were honest and sincere, instead of abusing those hunting for the felons, had they joined in the hunt, then and not until then can they come before the people of Kentucky with clean hands and ask for the vote of honest men."—Chas. J. Bronston.

A TRYING POSITION.

Maysville Readers Will Appreciate This Advice.

A constant itching tries your patience. Nothing so annoying. Nothing so irritating.

As itching piles or eczema. To scratch the irritation makes it worse.

To leave it alone makes misery.

Some citizens can tell you how to be free from these troubles. Read the following:

Mrs. Nannie Hunter, of 446 Forest ave., says: "Doan's Ointment, which I procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market streets, proved to be invaluable. I wish its marvelous curative powers were known to every one who needs a cure for the troubles for which the use of Doan's Ointment is indicated."

THE H. E. FOGUE DISTILLERY CO.

Taylor, who has transplanted himself from Kentucky soil to that of Indiana, might, we suppose, be termed a "daisy;" yet this wouldn't cut any figure by the side of Taylor at Washington, selling the new crop Daisy New Orleans molasses at 60c. per gallon. Now here's the chance for any who may have been soured at Taylor's conduct, to get themselves sweetened at a very moderate outlay.

The Difference in Cost

Of thoroughly good fashionable and serviceable Clothes and Shoes as bear our label and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore we thoroughly endorse and guarantee all goods we sell, and say, "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our experience as well as yours has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts, the Manhattan; Hanan Shoes and Stetson Hats. All of these are the highest class of merchandise in their respective lines.

JUDGE PUGH.

The Republican Nominee From a Real Republican's Standpoint.

Read What Mayor Rose, of Louisa, a Prominent Republican of Lawrence County, Says of Him.

Why should the Republicans vote for S. J. Pugh? I am a Republican and I am not able to say, but can give many reasons why we should not vote for him.

1. He said he was for civil service reform, but did he let his voice be heard against it?

2. He belongs to the Mark Hanna gang.

3. He did not have the backbone to appoint the different postmasters in his Congressional district.

4. Because he has taken all the Government officers that he had influence over to come and canvass his district in the convention (and this was done in each county in the district) when they are all paid by the Government for the time they were working for Samuel J. Pugh. If these men could be spared to work for the cause of S. J. Pugh why should they be paid by the Government?

5. Because he is only a dummy and is never heard of only when the vote is taken, and not then until Hanna and Morgan Thomas are heard first and tell him how to vote; then he does the voting as directed. Had he been there working as you or I would have to do if we were employed by the Government at $1.25 per day shoveling mud we would to-day have an appropriation for the survey of the Big Sandy river, which would place us in the same condition as the Kentucky river and give us the money to go on with the slack-water project. But in this he has failed, just as in all other things that would be of benefit to his district.

Please point out one thing that he has done for the old soldier. He has been against them in all his appointments, has turned them down every time, and the only thing he has done for them is to have his Secretary write them good, kind letters, the Government furnishing the stationery and postage free.

I have always thought the Republican party was a progressive party, and if they found they had made a mistake would do all in their power to correct it. I am a Republican of this stripe. I have voted for S. J. Pugh twice, but feel ashamed of it and will try to get back three votes this fall for the wrong I have done to the people of the Ninth Congressional district. I don't think the Republicans gave S. J. Pugh the nomination. It was his appointees. So I don't think the party ought to stand by what the officers do if they have done wrong. I for one will not do it. I am for the principles that the Republican party teaches, but not for what the office-holders preach when it is for their own good and against the best interests of the people.

I want to ask you people who labor for the Government, would you be granted the privilege of going out from your work one day or one hour without being "docked" for the time out, if you did not lose your place entirely?

Think of this, my friends, when you vote in November. S. J. Pugh had all of his men to come into the district and work for him at the expense of the Government.

I hope that all laboring men will for once lay aside politics and vote against S. J. Pugh, as he is against the best interests of the poor man, and he has no use for any one unless he has a barrel of money. He belongs to Mark Hanna and Morgan Thomas. JAS. N. ROSE, Mayor of Louisa, Ky.

Women Who Work

Nine out of ten women are afflicted with some of the common ailments known as female diseases. Among women whose employment requires them to stand on their feet or sit in the same position all day, not one in twenty-five escape these troubles. The average feminine constitution cannot, unaided, withstand the strain to which steady, trying work subjects them. The organs of womanhood are so delicate and finely adjusted that the inevitable result of constant standing, lifting, stooping or straining is displacement of vital parts. The disorder is usually slight at first, but soon develops into irregular or painful menstruation, leucorrhoea or falling of the womb. Wine of Cardui is the right remedy for female weakness. As such it is offered to you. Wine of Cardui will not perform miracles, but it will, if taken as directed, insure painless and regular operation of the menstrual function. It will drive out every trace of leucorrhoea, and will so strengthen the ligaments that falling of the womb will be an impossibility. Don't you think it would pay you to try a medicine with such a record as that? You can get a $1 bottle of Wine of Cardui at any drug store and use it in the privacy of your home.

WINE OF CARDUI

Townsend, Ga., May 18, 1899.

I have been in bad health with falling of the womb, weak back, nervousness and heart palpitation. At monthly periods I would be in bed suffering great pain. Lately I have been taking Wine of Cardui and Theodor's Black-Draught, and they have brought me wonderful relief. I have no pain, and do not stop work at the monthly period.
